Our Values explained

As a community we agreed that our university's purpose, decisions, and actions rest on six values we all believe in and try to uphold in the conduct of our daily work.

A group of colleagues from across the university have defined what our values mean, and why they matter to all of us.

Inclusive

We champion our diverse community.

We value our unique differences; our university is a space for students and colleagues to be themselves. We want everyone at LBU to feel a sense of belonging.

Teamwork

We are one team.

We each play a part in our collective success. Collaboration across our community is core to what we do. We work together to create an environment that supports students and colleagues to thrive.

Integrity

We value trust, honesty, and fairness.

We do what we say and take responsibility for our actions. We are open about the expectations we set and deliver on our commitments.
